DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1 to 4 and 6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Langer et al.

See column 2, lines 13 to 20.

3. Claims 1 and 6 to 8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Sekiya et al.

See column 6, lines 6 to 15.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. Claim 5 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Langer et al. in view of Wickler et al.

This claim requires the speed of the transfer table to be synchronized with that of the roughing and finishing roll stands. Wickler et al. discloses a rolling mill arrangement in which the speeds of the reduction rolls and the run-out table rolls are synchronized, and advises that scratching of the material due to sliding over the rolls is avoided.

It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art to synchronize the speed of the conveyor rolls 9 in Langer et al. with that of the roll stands 3, 4, following the teaching of Wickler et al., in order to avoid sliding contact and scratching of the material over the rolls 9.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

6. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

7. Claims 3 and 7 are further rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

No clear antecedent basis is found for "the intermediate roller" in Claim 3 or "the shear" in Claim 7. These claims are therefore considered to be vague and indefinite.

Conclusion

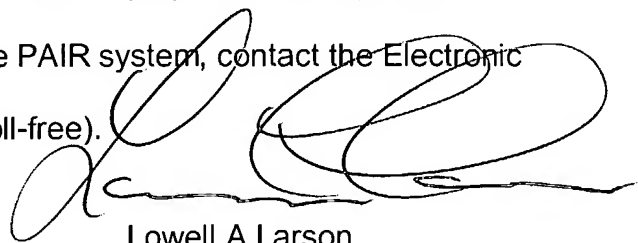

8. This is a continuation of applicant's earlier Application No. 10/285,734. All claims are drawn to the same invention claimed in the earlier application and could have been finally rejected on the grounds and art of record in the next Office action if they had been entered in the earlier application. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL even though it is a first action in this case. See MPEP § 706.07(b). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no, however, event will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
